

A RESOLUTION to congratulate Robert J. Broome for outstanding work as an intern.

WHEREAS, throughout the course of each legislative session, there have on occasion emerged certain individuals who far exceed the basic requirements set forth for them to follow; and

WHEREAS, Robert J. Broome has distinguished himself as one such individual through his work as a legislative intern for Representative Matthew Kisber, his efforts resulting in untold benefits for the member he served and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, a highly regarded student at Austin Peay State University, Mr. Broome has excelled both academically and in extracurricular activities; he is a political science major and has been named to the Dean's List four times; and

WHEREAS, during the 1995 legislative session, he exceeded all standards with regard to the qualities that are expected of a dedicated and competent legislative intern, even though he was late for work every Tuesday; and

WHEREAS, eager to learn more about the intricacies and idiosyncrasies of Tennessee state government and to aid in his governmental studies, Mr. Broome brought his many skills to the State Capitol for the 1995 session of the Ninety-Ninth General Assembly; he expresses his enthusiasm as he frequently emits a distinct "whoo-whoo" when provoked or is particularly exuberant; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Broome has been involved in several associations including, Sigma Chi Fraternity, Student Government Association, College Democrats, University Programs Council, Interfraternity Council, Pi Sigma Alpha Honorary, Omicron Delta Kappa Honorary, in addition to being a 1994 Greek Man of the Year nominee; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Broome was Social Chairman of the legislative interns for an entire three weeks before he was demoted due to the lack of interest that was evident at lunch as he became "A Solitary Man", preferring to read the paper and dine alone; and

WHEREAS, he has received numerous gold stars for his outstanding Crayola art work that was displayed on the Executive Dining Room refrigerator and decorated his office with many worthless witticisms; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Broome was voted by the House Finance Committee officers as "Best Intern From Austin Peay State University To Be Assigned To The House Finance Committee"; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Broome has performed his many responsibilities with extraordinary ingenuity and decorum and will forever have nightmares about committee packets; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, That we hereby commend Robert J. Broome on his outstanding work as a legislative intern and wish him well in his future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
